Tried to hide my emotions, tried to pretend it wasn't you.
But deep down inside, this devotion, keeps me longin',
yearning for you.

This is the message, straight from my heart to you.
Hope you receive it gladly, 'cause darlin', I'm in love with you.

Babe, I know my pride, causes ache inside, come I'll give my heart to you.
Have no cares, love for you I share, nothin' more I can do.

This ends my story, although the world is in two.
I have that secret glory, of bein' in love with you.

Babe, I know my pride, causes ache inside, now I'll give my heart to you.
Have no cares, the love for you I share, nothin' more I can do.

This ends my story, although the worries beat you.
I have that secret glory, of bein' in love with you.
