I almost lost my mind, tryin' to hold onto you.
Almost lost my mind, tryin' to hold onto you.
I know you didn't love me baby, you only wanted the things that don't belong to you.

I built my whole life aroun' you, said that we would never part.
Built my whole life aroun' you, said that we would never part.
And I'm left alone to cry, you're off to break somebody else's heart.

Yes, you ain't nothin' but a she devil, yes, you wouldn't do right if you could.
Yes, you ain't nothin' but a she devil, you wouldn't do right if you could.
That's why I'm gonna let you go, baby, 'cause you don't mean me no good.
