Yes, I've got a juice-headed baby, she stays drunk all the time.

Yes, I've got a juice-headed baby, that stays drunk all the time.

An' the part 'at hurts so bad I'm in love with her, chick is 'bout to drive me out of my mind.

Yes, she 's never home when I need her, because she 's always gone.

She 's never home when I need her, she 's forever gone.

Yes, the part that hurts so bad I'm in love with her, an' I just can't let that chick alone.

When my baby come home drunk I'm sorry for her, 'cause she just can't understand.

Yes, when she come home drunk I'm sorry for her, 'cause she just don't understand.

'Cause if she ever loses me, it's hard to find another man.

Yes, sometimes my baby 's with me, but she 's forever gone.

Yes, sometime my baby 's with me, yes, but sometimes she's always gone.

She 's my juice headed baby, yes, and I just can't let that chick alone.
