"Why I Love You"

Tell my why I love you baby? It's something I can't
I know I love you baby, and I don't love no one else.

Someday you'll learn to love me, just like I love you.
Someday you'll love me, just like I love you.
Just like you hurt me, somebody 's going to hurt you to.

Your lovin' ways, fills me through an' through.
Your lovin' ways, fills me through an' through.
Don't ever try to leave me, 'cause I've got a special place I've bought and paid for you.

I'm with you because I love you, and I'm not the type
that plays.
I'm with you because I love you, and I'm not the type
that plays.
And if you don't mean right baby, then you 'd better,
better be on your way.
