I been blue this blessed day, and a angry feelin' all
night long.
I been blue this blessed day, and a angry feelin' all
night long.
I have lost my good job and now my best woman done gone.

I work in the rain and snow to put shoes on her feet.
I work in the rain and cold to put shoes on her feet.
Now she's got all of my money and left me standin' in the street.

But there will be all right sweet woman your troubles
will come some day.
It will be all right sweet woman your troubles will come some day.
It'll be another good woman layin' on the pillow where you once have lay.

I got the angry feelin' blues, an' I don't care where I go.
I got the angry feelin' blues, I don't care where I go.
'Cause the women 's all crooked they won't treat a
