You know I love you, love everything you do.
Yes, you know I love you, love everything you do.
My life is wrapped around you, that's why you don't care what you do.

Darlin' when you not with me, my mind can't think no more.
When you not 'round me, my mind can't think no more.
Then when you gone darlin', I have no place to go.

My mind is so cloudy, the world seems upside down.
My mind is so cloudy, the world seems upside down.
Yes, when you not around me, baby everything is gone.

I'm leavin' you darlin', I just can't understand.
I'm leavin' you baby, just why I just can't stand.
I'm through with you baby, so go back to your outside man.
