I never knew love was so nice,
I never kissed anyone twice,
I never wanted a beau;
Poor me! I just didn't know.
You came along, I got a thrill;
One kiss from you, I feel it still.
Now each time you look my way
You're gonna hear me say:

Come on and do what you do!
It seems so new, what you do,
It thrills me through, what you do;
So do what you do some more!
You know I love what you do,
Keep dreaming of what you do;
Don't be above what you do,
But do what you do some more!

Can't get enough of the kisses you throw me,
I need a big supply;
Give me the kisses you owe me.
Oh, me! oh, my!
Do I adore what you do?
More and more, and more, and more what you do,
I'm crazy for what you do,
So do what you do some more!
