Cause you broke my heart
That's as good a place to start
As any I can think of
Off the top

You cheated
And you lied
And that's reason why
Everyone hears what a catch you're not

But I won't call you names
This is all I'll say

I'll say she don't know nothing
She don't know better
I tell 'em it's how you were raised

When it comes up
Don't worry my love
I blame you in the nicest way
I don't mean to be unkind
But that's as delicate as I
Could ever boil it down to in my head

You brought me to the brink
Now did you really think
That I was gonna run to your defense

But I won't call you names
This is all I'll say

I'll say she don't know nothing
She don't know better
I tell 'em it's how you were raised

[Repeat chorus]
