I've seen that look
A million times before.
It says,
She ain't no stranger to a closing door.
And she can't hide.
What lies inside.

Chorus:
She's got the kind of heart that breaks,
Oh, easy does it for goodness sake.
One tear away from a big mistake,
She's got the kind of heart that breaks
My heart.

One kiss,
One night,
Is going to be to much.
One time.
No way.
I'm finished if we touch.
And I'm just Amen,

Better go, while I can.

Chorus:
She's got the kind of heart that breaks,
Oh, easy does it for goodness sake.
One tear away from a big mistake,
She's got the kind of heart that breaks
My heart.

No, she can't hide,
What lies inside.

Chorus:
She's got the kind of heart that breaks,
Oh, easy does it for goodness sake.
One tear away from a big mistake,
She's got the kind of heart that breaks
My heart.
