caret cornered
milky luster
in a creek bed everybody wants to find it there not the market or a coal mine in a corn field there it would lay lost someones rock is your perspective someones fear is your divining rod water bucket ripple ocean nothings swim their magnetized course home that's why we can't have nice things in this house last time we left you here you cracked the good china 13th century ming or whatever cmon
the way you treat it he should've spun this gold for someone else put ketchup all over fast food asshole
what difference does it make you're a gem
some really special shit and someone else might not appreciate it like i do a porcelain soul fired so smooth is rare enough to take precautions calm down over there butterfingers
it's not a napkin you can't just use her flesh to wipe your face act like you've been here or i'll never bring you back all of the jewels left they will horde them
if you let them do it
