It's how you breathe when you're asleep
It's fighting when it's time to die
Convolutd to the point of no escape
It's how you breathe when you're asleep
Convolutd to the point of no escape
And when it's gone it's gone forever
And when it's here it's here to stay
Paint a picture using nothing but grey
Capture the ever-passing moment
We are the echo
The mere reflection of a song that's always been
Reach out grab the sound
Don't just stare
The waters rising
Tracers fly from off our hands
Keeping their place in the line
Memory and consciousness
Fight over the images
And when it's gone it's gone forever
And when it's here it's here to stay
Paint a picture using nothing but grey
Capture the ever-passing moment
