Summer, the leaves are green winter the naked trees springtime a new age is born in the fall there's an early dawn and the colors embrace the sun

Tell me what, [what] is wrong [is wrong]
we all wanna be free in our homes we all want [we want] to live [to live] in peace and in harmony

Colors of the earth blue and green colors, there's no difference between you and me
the color of your heart, U should be proud inside a solution comes to mind ...
Don't see the world in black and white

Flowers that smell so sweet nectar of the honey bees and the colors on the butterflys there's a beauty within a cry people dyin don't ask me why

Tell me what, [what] is wrong [is wrong]
we all wanna be free in our homes

between you and me
the color of your heart,
Don't see the world in black and white

Why can't we see that the beauty lays in U and me if you'd just look around you you know that it's wrong before everything we have is gone

Colors of the earth blue and green
colors, there's no difference
between you and me
the color of your heart,

colors, there's no difference
between you and me
the color of your heart,
a solution comes to mind ... [comes to mind] Don't see the world in black and white
