You'd think it would be stinging
But I don't feel a thing
I guess you didn't take me close to the knife

It's like you can give me (...?)
But hey I'm not even sick
I hardly even noticed that you tried to kill me

I don't know kung-fu
But I am much smarter than you

It's a game, of hide and seek
I'll find you, I'll hide me
I dread it, but I can't wait quiet in the closet
It's a game of hide and seek
"I'll find you", "I'll hide me"
I dread it, but I can't wait quiet

You walk the line between weird and psychotic
But I wouldn't be surprised if we were related
There's a side of my family that needs to be sedated
And you've got the signs that you can be easily inventive?

I don't know what's wrong with you
Possibly chemicals coursing through

Chorus

But you, what you will never win
I won't let you kill again
I'm not impressed with your evilness and I won't clean up your serial mess

I don't know kung-fu
But I am much smarter than you

It's a game of hide and seek
"I'll find you", "I'll hide me"
I dread it, but I can't wait quiet in the closet
Oh you come with a big knife
So I trip you on your face

Got a second to get the hell out
Now I'm running and screaming

It's a game of hide and seek
I'll find you, I'll hide you
I dread it, but I can't wait (2x)
