[lyrics by Dark, music by Dark and Vassago]

In the beginning of all time, when I was born A shadow crawled all over me
The shadow, shadow of the northern son... which filled me with darkness and Majestic hatred
Join the darkness of the northern son ...Belial I stared onto the dark prince of evil, enwrapped in a black gown a great Malignant shape...with a dark voice as cold as ice
My blood froze when I stared onto this prince of evil
...Belial
Nowadays, thousands of years later I have become one with the darkness in This mighty kingdom, I obey Belial
He is the lord over all living creatures He shall rule for eternity He is the Master of masters ...Belial
