In the light of the fullmoon
Behold the shadow of my spirit that spreads its wings
on the ground in the light of the fullmoon
I am immortal
High above the clouds I could see the sun fade away.
It doesn't shine anymore. This beautifulnight is forever and ever!

In the light of the fullmoon
I behold the river of tears below.
I am the enchanted one that flies in the light of the fullmoon.
The river of tears derived from all humans in vain.
In the light of the fullmoon?
