Attention (ladies and gentlemen) we have lord finesse (yeah, it's
Him again. why don't you get the place pumping, come on, say a Little something!)

Alright, let me kick this fly intro
Somethin that's smooth but quite simple
This is my type of groove, so don't make plans
I don't care if you hop skip or breakdance
Don't worry cause you'll get your chance yet
To get funky and kick the fly dancesteps
At a show I try to maintain discipline
I keep you moving, but also listenin

"everyone is moving, but eager to listen" - cut and scratched 2x

Think I'm funky? I'll be funkier tomorrow
Yo, I'm one tough act to follow
Rip up mics when it's time to throw down
Make mc's say: "i don't even wanna go now"
All I need is a mic and a hype groove
Two dancers and my dj mike smooth
To spin the wheels and make you shake your body
I kick a party like I know karate
Better yet like I was kickin a volleyball
I step on stage get raw, then I'm outty, y'all
Here we go now, so just stand back
I take a ho, a cheer, or a handclap
Get raw off the same drum while mc's remain dumb Don't worry cause there's more where that came from
I'm not the type of brother to kick a small rap Get swift and make a hit and think I'm all that Cause I elevate, make the fellas break

I drink a 40, lay back, and just celebrate Shoot and flip the rhymes because I'm swift and wise
Lord finesse will keep the crowd hypnotized

"everyone is moving, but eager to listen" - cut and
scratched 2x

I'm the technician a.k.a. the rhyme arranger
Have old folks saying "who was that stranger? "
It's lord finesse, so don't forget to tell em that Pass me a mic and roll down the welcome mat
I don't front when it's time to kick a rhyme or two
I get raw and show the crowd what I could do
And steal a show before others have a chance to
By givin party people somethin funky to dance to Kickin the lyrics and let the beat get them
Man, I sound groovy even on a weak system
I warm up the scene like a bottle of brandy
And if that fails, then I just go to plan b
But once I start there's no need to slow down
As soon as I say "one two, here we go now"
Rhymes I say structure and analyze
Then say to myself downlow "goddamn, I'm fly"
Rhymes'll stay when I'm gone like a fossile
I'm livin large, stupenous, colossal
Me and mike smooth, we're so magnificent
We keep the crowd movin, but also listenin

"everyone is moving, but eager to listen" - cut and
scratched 4x
