

Lord Tariq & Peter Gunz "Going To War"

Visit "Going To War" on MotoLyrics.com

It's time for me to go for war
To take shield at my side and sword in hands
My head with helmet protect
Put on leather shoes
And a strong horse mount
When moon rises
I will start my journey
Night will be my goddess of darkness protection
Wind gently will drown my breath
Spirit will show the path
I will protect myself by shield
I will inflict blows by falchion
Helmet will counter enemies arrows
Leather shoes in blood we will soak
Trampling our foes with my horse
When moon rises
Deep in darkness I will hasten
Mist will offer to me, her hoary, helping hand
Trees will expose secret loads
