

Adolescents "Let It Rain"

Visit "Let It Rain" on MotoLyrics.com

Nothing original
The sin I wear
Unholy wound
This open tear
All of god's children
Would truly understand
The midnight flight
The crimson sand

Let it rain
Wash it all away
Let it rain
Let it rain

Thorns of Christ
No peace on earth
Lord of flies
King of dirt
The search for tomorrow
Lies in these eyes of fire
A test of faith
Will transpire

The road to peace lay at your door
The road to peace and nothing more

Just say the word, I'll walk away
Just say the word, I'll walk away
Just say the word
I'll shed no tears for yesterday
Just say the word, I'll walk away
