i don't know how many (?) it takes to get to the center of a tootsie roll (center of a tootsie roll) and i don't know where balloons go when a child slips up and let them go (slips up and let them go) i don't know why the good die young and renegades live forever (live forever) and i don't know why we take it for granted when and girl i don't know how (don't know how), how i found this love (found this love) don't know how (don't know how), how i gained your trust (gained your trust) i'll probably never know everything but but there's one thing i'm sure of oh baby i'll be kissing you my baby i'll be loving you, like crazy through rain and sunshine (through rain and sunshine) that's what i'm sure of and my mind's made up so there's no maybes i'm so glad to call you my baby

that's what i'm sure of (if your sure than say whoa whoa whoa) (let me hear you say whoa whoa) i don't know everything, but i know what i need and i know you got all my love all my soul and all my trust and even if i don't know everything there is one thing i'm sure of i'll be kissing you

my baby i'll be loving you, like crazy
through rain and sunshine (through rain and sunshine)
that's what i'm sure of
