Nightfall come to me blessed be the unholy Come to cleanse impurity come to pass tranquility Ethereal mists pour over perished ruins Lands strewn with sulphurous solitude unveiled Timorous and slothful vengeful deeds become glory
Destroyed in vain
Tartarean prophecy prevailed Strength with eternal wisdom conversed Seduced from obedience bereaved of happiness divinity may partake Divested of temptation unwanted mused by sempiternal angst Imperium norm exhumed while His Divine Creation inhumed

Held in potent voice the ardent and overshadowed seized at great length While boundless detriment with ubiquitous agony united Flames infinite and vacuous burn with boundless strength From the armory of hatred sprung forth furious winds Followed were the ashes of divinity purged Exordium to prolific ataxia long vanquished With pure darkness regained impervious the art of revenants Flames burn with boundless strength
Impervious the art of revenants
