Dark overcasts swiftly engulf the light of the sun
Power winds blow ragefully uplifting all in their path
Roaring of thunder cracks across a blackened firmament
The incoming damnation storm rips away at Earth

Portals from holocaust realms form and open wide Impish invaders are permitted entrance at their will Ebony warriors of terror slay all as they ride forth
Fiends of Chaos destroy with a bezerking fury

Chaotic Entirety

Canyons of beauty now become chasms of cessation Mists of gloom darken a once light filled skies
Earthquakes rumble effectuating massive destruction
Planes shift cracking as flames erupt from below
Warcries are heard from amassed soldiers of hate Coffins open and crypted ones rise for vengeance
Malevolent hordes are signed and storm the lands
Suicidal demons sweep humanity into nullification

Chaotic Entirety

Civilization lies ruinic on pulverized hillsides
Under vigil from beyond mankind weeps it's losses Sorrow overcomes hope as an uncureable disease infecting

Levin out of above agrades the planet's weakened crust
Vicars of darkness laugh at the third from sun's demise
The pious light dissolves as if never there
