Out of eternity, they triumphantly voyage
From galaxy to galaxy domineering
New races to enslave, new worlds to burn
Expanding their dark dimension forever

Technology supreme, used to conquer
Weaponry beyond light-years of study
Bombarding planets, extinguish novas
Pirating crucial resources, leaving only desolation

The armada lies in formation
Ready for entrance to new systems
Their leader opens the Stargate!

The solar system appears through the gateway
Scanners detect life only on the third
Mankind knows nothing of the nightmare to come
Armageddon of Earth will soon arrive

Creatures all beg for salvation
Horrors of a world being murdered
Gazing into skies filled with destruction
Dying at the hands of an unknown force

Allegiance sworn by oath
His dark army pulverized the universe
Access through the Stargate!

Fragments of worlds float through space
Stars power drained and fade away
Creations finale, demise of the cosmos
All because of one being's greed

Somber reign over the galaxy
Slaves, riches, resources
Brought to him through the Stargate!

Darkness envelops the universe!
