He's as smart as a fox, someone you can't fool
He's dressed like a Capone and he makes the rules
He's hard and he's tough and he pays the bill
Surrounded by girls with a licence to kill

He can walk with a swing and he talks so cool
He knows what he does, hangin' out by schools
He's after the babes and he calls them honey
He says they are cute and he waves with money

Man of steel, you're so cold
Dirty Willy with your heart of gold
Man of steel, you're so cold
Dirty Willy turns led into gold

He's got a limousine and he drives real slow
They call him a pimp, he's got nowhere to go
He's got a weakness for girls and they're willing to share
Married five times, got kids everywhere

He's a sucker for a gamble but he takes no risk

On the one-arm bandit he's the best there is
He uses bad money so he just can't lose
When his mob gets thirsty he will pay the booze

Man of steel.....

At the steeplechase he plays a winning game
Cause he bribes the jockey with a lusty dame
He will never bet on a losing mare
Cause he knows his women, he's a millionaire

He's extorting money from the rich and poor
Cause equality is what he's fighting for
If you're black or white, he really doesn't care
He accepts your cash and he thinks it's fair

Man of steel.....
