I was staring through the jailbars
Over the open prairie sky
Bob, the deputy, was singing
I thought I heard coyotes cry
I was thinking 'bout my mama
The meanest whore in Texas town
Well she sold me to Tex Shorty
The horny dwarf with the sore in his eye
But I was dreaming of Clint Eastwood
A handsome man, Magnum .45
I was in love with my lone ranger
So I had to kill his wife
Don't kill for love
God is watching from above
The devil's gonna send you straight to hell

Don't kill for love
God is watching from above
Life ain't always easy, I can tell
Blood'll break me, here we go! (x4)
(x2)
Don't kill for love
God is watching from above
The devil's gonna send you straight to hell
Don't kill for love
God is watching from above
Life ain't always easy, I can tell
