I wanna talk to you about forbidden pleasures of the flesh

The most thrilling satisfaction for all mankind

Better than everything you've ever imagined in your wildest dreams

The secret of the crab louse

Here's a message for the girls about vaginas

And the consequence of fiddling with a partner

Mind your labia they're never out of danger

If you're gonna go to bed with a stranger

Creatures might be hidden in his pubic area

It's the crab louse it's out to getcha

It's gonna grab you by the pubic hair

Shake your pussy when the bastard's there

It's there to stay

Sucks all day

It's there to bite

My parasite

The little vampire, horny and so greedy

It doesn't care about a penis and it's envy

Its intelligence is nasty and it's sick

A party animal, a pervert, and a pig
If a crab louse mixes up with your saliva

Stumbles through your body right into your vulva

Then waits patiently until a penetration

Gets it out of there and right into salvation

It's there to stay

Sucks all day

It's there to bite

My parasite

My love machine

My maddest dream

Turns me on

Makes me cum

Now we know the little crab louse is a raver

You can't get rid of it unless you use a razor

It's unbearable, funky and so cool

A real smartass and nobody's fool

If you meet a guy who's scratching at his totem

We all know that it's connected with his scrotum

He might tell you his undie is too tight

You will know that it's a crab louse and you're right

It's there to stay

Sucks all day

It's there to bite

My parasite

My love machine

My maddest dream

Turns me on

Makes me cum
