"Curiosity"

I've know you since moved in round my way,
All those silly games we used to play,
Feel like it was almost yesterday,
Girl don't you remember.

When everything we had was all we need,
Whether good or bad simplicity,
Going everywhere together,
We were good friends,
Always good friends.

We can sit, we can talk, try to work it out,
Even though we know what it's all about,
Don't pretend evidently there's no doubt,
Baby tell me,

Aren't you curious,
What it'd be like with us,
We've been living in a friend zone building up trust,
Possibilities, Baby you and me,
Could be writing on a wall, could be destiny,
Aren't you curious, what it'd be like with us,
'Cause I would give it all just to change your love,
Possibilities, Baby you and me,
Such an easy thing to see,
Curiosity's got the best of me.

So what would you say when I say that,
I guess it's from here we can't go back,
To tell you the truth matter of fact,
(As a matter of fact)
Baby I love you,

There hasn't been a night that settled in by,
Add up all the years it's been a long time,
Don't tell me you've never felt this way like I've,
Been feeling forever.

We can sit, we can talk, try to work it out,
Even though we know what it's all about,
Don't pretend evidently there's no doubt,

Baby tell me,

Aren't you curious,
What it'd be like with us,
We've been living in a friend zone building up trust,
Possibilities, Baby you and me,
Could be writing on a wall, could be destiny,
Aren't you curious, what it'd be like with us,
'Cause I would give it all just to change your love,
Possibilities, Baby you and me,
Such an easy thing to see,
Curiosity's got the best of me.
(Oh, oh yeah, curiosity's, got the best of me)

I have spent my whole life lovin' you,
Won't you spend the rest of yours lovin'
Me too,
So baby tell me,

Aren't you curious,
What it'd be like with us,
We've been living in a friend zone building up trust,
Possibilities, Baby you and me,
Could be writing on a wall, could be destiny,
Aren't you curious, what it'd be like with us,
'Cause I would give it all just to change your love,
Possibilities, Baby you and me,
Such an easy thing to see,
Curiosity's got the best of me.
