(Verse)

I think I need a lifeline
It's like I'm in a crazy game
And I don't have the words to say
The wind is as a fiction
I may need a lifetime
I'll never know the perfect play
Hitting this day by day
But I've got good intentions

(Pre-Chorus)

Look me in the eye
Do you think I'm fly?
I can tell you I'm into me
So why you're acting shy?
Lay down all your cards
I won't make it hard
Let me be the winner of your heart, whoa

(Chorus)

This game is like a gamble
It's my heart you handle
Need you to be gentle
You should let me win
Not your heart I'm playing
Don't know what to say
I'm tryina catch a break
Boy you should let me win, oh, oh, oh
You should let me win, oh, oh, oh

(Verse)

I never been a loser, and I don't wanna be one now
I always get my way somehow,
Why should this be different?
I felt it when I kissed you
Drove me just a little bit wild
I always knew I liked your style
I never thought I would be with ya

(Pre-Chorus)

Look me in the eye

Do you think I'm fly?
I can tell you're into me
So why you're acting shy?
Lay down all your cards
I won't make it hard
Let me be the winner of your heart, whoa

(Chorus)

This game is like a gamble
It's my heart you handle
Need you to be gentle
You should let me win
Not your heart I'm playing
Don't know what to say
I'm tryina catch a break
Boy you should let me win, oh, oh, oh
You should let me win, oh, oh, oh

(Bridge)

Baby don't be mean, I mean it with my heart
If you don't like the game
I might be torn apart
Get real and start, I'm runnin to my phone
Until I fall in love
Until I win your heart

(Chorus)

This game is like a gamble
It's my heart you handle
Need you to be gentle
You should let me win
Not your heart I'm playing
Don't know what to say
I'm tryina catch a break
Boy you should let me win, oh, oh, oh
You should let me win, oh, oh, oh
