I'm looking for salvation
A place where I can find peace, I don't know it's ever done to you.
So many complications, everyday is something.
I'm so confused....

Chorus

Escape from my mind
Escape from my life
Escape any where
Escape go away from here.

Escape x2
Verse2

I'm loosing all my patience
It's so hard to resistent, I don't know what I'm going through.
NO my hesitation, (no x3)
Some people so... (you know what I have to do)Yeahh

Everytime I can make my whole life ohh
Should be to I'm fading away and tonight (no)
where am I fading so...
What I am going to

Chorus

Bridge

As much as I need, some clusion from here
here's the thing is inside me, holding me down Find the place where, no one else hears go away from, everything that I know

Chorus (till the end)
