(David Wilkins)

Walk on out the door I left it open Oh, but as you leave you better not look back 'Cause you might see the good times we've had together after you're gone
And if there's anything I can't stand it's a crawling man.

So don't come crawling back after you leave me
If you try cryin' on my shoulder you're on the wrong track
I just wanna let you know how it is before you take one step
And if there's anything I can't stand it's a crawling man.

If there's anything I can't stand it's a crawling man 'Cause I couldn't stand to see you on your knees knockin' on my door again
So travel on your own risk baby think it over while you can 'Cause if there's anything I can't stand it's a crawling man...
