It's dy-no-mite where you love me I've got the fire that burns to prove just that Yes it's dy-no-mite where you love me you lit my fuse and blew me off and out

I thought that I was cool calm and elected welcome to the club I thought so too
But I got more charge from you that I expected Ain't we glad the combination works so good It's dy-no-mite where you love me...

[steel]

I thought it jingles each time you come near me I get all shook up every time we touch It's gettin' harder every time you left me you know a man can only stand so much It's dy-no-mite where you love me...
It's dy-no-mite where you love me...
