(Shel Silverstein)

I told you that I'd never come around again but here I am again here I am again

I said I'd never let you get me down again here I am again here I am

Here I am here we are the story's gettin' old

I know I can't go on to you but worse than bad I can't let go

I said words I swore I'd never speak but again here I am again here I am again

I thought I could stay strong but I got weak again and here I am again here I am

Here I am here we are...

And oh the nights're cold and I could use a friend so here I am again here I am again
