"Hundred Proof Heartache"

I've got a hundred proof heartache and a case of the blues

My baby's gone and left me I've lost all I can lose
I've got a hundred proof heartache my world keeps turning round

This hundred proof heartache's got me down

You waded through my tears then said goodbye
You didn't seem to care how much I'd cry
You made your home the tavern down the street
And this old heart cries out with every beat

I've got a hundred proof heartache and a case of the blues
You're holding someone else tonight I just got the news

You left a hundred proof heartache for a love that's second hand

This hundred proof heartache I can't stand

[piano - steel]

I've got a hundred proof heartache my world keeps turnin' round

This hundred proof heartache's got me down
