Conway Twitty & Loretta Lynn

(Loretta)

I pushed him away and carefully said, "I'm just not that kinda girl.

You might think I'm square but you've been around in the ways of the world

I know that making is taking for granted, it's all easy come, easy go

He pulled me close, whispered, "Now darlin', there's something I want you to know."

(Conway)

I still believe in waltzes, and girls with old fashioned ways

I still believe in love songs in the good, in the good ole days

I've always liked happy endings, somebody's dream comin' true

I still believe in waltzes and dancin' the last one with you.

(Loretta)

He slipped into bed, I turned over and said, "I'm worried your working so late.

Is it just your job that keeps you away, Lord I know the temptations are great.

I'm just a wife, I'm just a momma, it's not too excitin', I know."

He pulled me close and whispered those same words that night, long ago.

(Conway)

I still believe in waltzes, and girls with old fashioned ways

I still believe in love songs in the good, in the good ole days

I've always liked happy endings, somebody's dream comin' true

I still believe in waltzes and dancin' the last one with you.

(Both)

We still believe in waltzes, and girls with old fashioned ways

I still believe in love songs in the good, in the good ole days

I've always liked happy endings, somebody's dream
comin' true

I still believe in waltzes and dancin' the last one with you...
