My heart was at a standstill
Your touch shook it up
You made me see what I've missed
Now I can't get enough.

I fit so right in your world
You set my heart on go
On the coldest day of winter
Lord, our love would melt the snow.

Our love is hotter than the fire that swept Chicago
Deeper than the Gulf of Mexico
Sweeter than the sugarcane way down in Louisiana
Here with you is where I want to be
I'm lovin' what your lovin' does to me.

Your love struck me
Like a bolt out of the blue
The first thing that I knew
I was givin' it all to you.

You make it happen
Whenever I'm with you
The longest day of summer
Couldn't warm me like you do.

Our love is stronger than the winds that hit Biloxi
Taller than the hills of Tennessee
More movin' than the earthquakes that shake up
California
