RISING ABOVE IT ALL

WITH CONWAY TWITTY

I can't count the times because of me your heart's been broken

And I have seen you hurt because of angry words I've spoken

But somehow you always knew when I hurt you I never meant to

We keep rising above it all like the sun on wings of morning

And the hurt can't make us fall we keep rising above it all

I have seen the pain that brought your eyes to overflowing

Oh and I've been so ashamed but then you have your way of knowing

Through it all you could still see you and me the way it should be

We keep rising above it all...

We keep rising above it all...
