(Loretta Lynn)

We're not kids anymore not a little girl and boy
But we break each other's heart like a child breaks a toy
We're a woman and a man watchin' love slips through our hands
Let's grow up we're not kids anymore.

I go out of my way to hurt you more every day
And you cry out like your little heart will break
And every time you make me blue I make the point to hurt you too
And I wonder how much more our love can take.

We're not kids anymore not a little girl and boy
But we break each other's heart like a child breaks a
We're a woman and a man watchin' love slips through
our hands
Let's grow up we're not kids anymore.
