(Loretta Lynn - Frances Rhodes)

Because I won't give in to you
You don't treat me like you should
You said that I'm too perfect
Then you tell me I'm no good.

But everyone is guilty
Of sometimes doin' wrong
But even so you wouldn't know
An angel if you saw one.

No, you wouldn't know
An angel if you saw one
You won't see any halos
On the women found in bars.

I may not get to heaven
But I'm not the only one
To tell you so you wouldn't know
An angel if you saw one.

--- Instrumental ---

Now you stand there accusing me
Of things you always do
And half the things you're telling me
Are things I never knew.

I don't go places you go
But that's your way of think
If yours is yours you wouldn't know
An angel if you saw one.

No, you wouldn't know
An angel if you saw one
You won't see any halos
On the women found in bars.

I may not get to heaven
But I'm not the only one

To tell you so you wouldn't know
An angel if you saw one...
