(Conway Twitty)

I came home last night about a quarter past four without a worry on my mind I slowly slipped through the kitchen door I thought I was doing right fine
But when I sneaked into my room and started to slip in the bed
I found the note into the wall and this is what it said You done lost your baby lost your baby lost your baby
tonight
You done lost your baby honey baby you just ain't been treatin' your baby right
You come home every night about a quarter past four
And then you come a sneakin' through the kitchen door
You done lost your baby lost your baby lost your baby
tonight
Well my knees started shakin' and my stomach was achin'
And my head went into a spin I said this just couldn't happened to me this must be a dream that I'm in So I stood there a shakin' for a minute or two and then I sat down on the bed
But when I opened her note once more still it plainly read
You done lost your baby lost your baby lost your baby
tonight
You done lost your baby honey baby you just ain't been
treatin' your baby right
Oh well you trifled on your bed so many times before But you ain't gonna trifle on your baby no more You done lost your baby lost my baby lost your baby tonight yeah
