I want to believe you.

I want to believe in us.

When everything is wrong

will you come through?

I want to believe you.

I want to believe you.

I want to believe in us.

When everything is wrong

will you come through?

will you come through?

will you come through?

When everything is wrong?

I want to believe you.

I want to believe in us.

When everything is wrong

will you come through?

I want to believe you.

I want to believe you.

When everything is wrong

will you come through?

Will you come through?

Will you come through?

Will you come through?
