She's the kind of girl who's in your corner
When the world is ragin' in your face She's the kind of girl who'll slip right through your fingers just the same (well) She's a little zen, she's a little Jesus Any Romeo would take your place Just when you think you got her in your pocket
Oh, She'll change
All of the boys sing their songs outta tune, out of time, that's okay
You've got her heart but you don't have a clue how she feels 'til she breaks But you'll be sorry if you say goodbye 'cause she's so pretty when she cries Did you think the world revolves around you And that all the love was yours to take You should thank your lucky stars the day she found you in the rain
She made you feel that you could walk on water

That could be your one fatal mistake
When your drowning in your tears you will discover It's too late, It's too late
All of the boys sing their songs outta tune, out of time,
that's okay
Now she's got your heart, and there's somebody new in the bed that you made But you'll be sorry when she says goodbye, cause she's so pretty when she cries (cries)...when she cries
All of the boys sing their songs outta tune, out of time, that's okay (she's so pretty) Ya, She's got your heart and there's somebody new, in the bed that you made (she's so pretty) Now you'll be sorry if you say goodbye, cause she's so pretty when she cries...when she cries...
