Day after day seems like I push against the clouds,
They just keep blocking out the sun,
It seems since I was born,
I've waken every bless'd morning,
Down on my luck, and up against the wind

Chorus:
Don't you stop,
Don't you run,
Don't you cry,

You'll do fine
You'll be good You'll get by

Night after night seem like I rage against the moon,
But it don't ever light the dark mmmm....no,
I curse the falling rain,
But it won't stop for my complaining,
Down on my luck and up against the wind,

Don't you stop
Don't you run
Don't you cry
mmmmmm
uhhhohhhh

Ad lib to fade
