Worlds Greatest Dad

Words and music

Chris Foster

(C) 2006 Chris Foster Music

A man of funny faces and a heart of love for me Throws me in the air and plays cowboy on his knee He caught me on my first step Then he showed me how to run
A jungle-gym of sorts I remember just a load of fun

HeÂ'd pin me on the floor Just like the wrestlers on TV And wouldnÂ't let up until He counted up to three And send up to bedtime And then chase me into bed HeÂ'd tuck me under covers And then heÂ'd kiss me on the head

A man of worried paces And a heart of love for me Stands upon the sideline As heÂ's routing for my team
A scream a yell an at a boy Was the music of my youth
And interwoven in were All great messages of truth

Here is how you hit the ball HereÂ's how to throw a curve
While standing in the batters box DonÂ't ever loose your nerve Instructions fall on deaf ears When becoming your own man
Somewhere in his wisdom I knew heÂ'd understand

If I----- were only 1/2 the father as you I could be very glad I would be very glad So I---- canÂ't thank you enough for the person you are YouÂ're the worlds greatest dad. The worlds greatest dad!

A man of solemn graces And a heart of love for me Stands with all forgiveness For the things I couldnÂ't be A memory that could hold the times When we were best of friends
And shoulder still to cry on and two arms that he extends

The passing years see us drift apart When we move away from home
But the circle will continue With the families of our own
