(Louis Element/Johnny Williams)
adaptation anglaise Jim Marr/Wendy Page

All the boys keep on telling me, they wanna live in my world
They don't believe what their eyes can see, I got to be my own girl
And when they're trying it on, I turn around and walk away
Cos there's nothing more to say

Got all I need in my world
Don't you try to own me, I'm who I want to be
Can't you see, I got all I need in my world

Don't wanna know the boys who come and go
And if they call me I'm not home
Hey girls, you know what I'm saying
Who needs the game they're playing ? We're better off alone
And when they're acting the fool, I keep it cool and walk away
Cos there's nothing more to say

Got all I need in my world
Don't you try to own me, I'm who I want to be
Can't you see, I got all I need in my world
Got all I need in my world
Don't you try to own me, I'm who I want to be
Can't you see, I got all I need in my world

(Solo)

Got all I need in my world, don't you try to own me
I'm who I want to be
Can't you see, I got all I need in my world
Got all I need in my world, don't you try to own me
I'm who I want to be
Can't you see, I got all I need in my world.
