How many times will you fall and stand alone with your
back to the wall?

How many times will it take 'til you crawl out from behind your mistake?

How many points did you win today?

How many times will you throw 'em all away?

What is it you want to hear from me?

Well, I think I'm running out of sympathy

I don't know what you expected

I can't get into your shoes

The minute you decide you're gonna take that ride
there's a chance you might win but then again you might lose

I never said it'd be easy

And I never gave guarantees

The things you have to do are mostly up to you

And I wouldn't stop you

I couldn't, even if I tried

Come on and give me that smile

I'd like to think you're worth my while

How many points did you win today?

How many times will you throw 'em all away?

What is it you want to hear from me?

Well, I think I'm running out of sympathy

You don't get something for nothing

They don't give it away

You wanna do what's right

You gotta stand and fight and don't pay much attention to the empty things they say

Life can be something you suffer or something you can enjoy

When I combine the two I'll still come up with you standing before me with fire in your eyes

Come on and give me that smile

I'd like to think you're worth my while

How many points did you win today?

How many times will you throw 'em all away?

What is it you want to heart from me

Well, I think I'm running out of sympathy

How many times will you fall and stand alone with your
back to the wall?
How many times will it take 'til you crawl out from
behind your mistake?
How many points did you win today?
How many times will you throw 'em all away?
How many points did you win today?
How many times will you throw 'em all away?
How many points did you win today?
How many times will you throw 'em all away?
How many points did you win today?
How many times will you throw 'em all away?
How many points did you win today?
How many times will you throw 'em all away?
