[Hook: Sean Hayz]

I know, I know

If I reach for the sky, and I aim for the stars

Maybe I'll find something along the way

And no matter how you count me out

I will never let you break me down

Nooooo, never say never

[Verse 1: Los]

Uh, I guess life don't mean this much when it ain't hard

So I just wake up every morning and I thank God

I'm from a hood full of falling stars and broken wishes

And a lot of potholes on my road to riches

I know n*ggas is throwing shade but why would I mind?

If nobody ever shadows you then how would you shine?

I mean they tried for so long just to bring me down

I need a new hobby I'm bored with killing my haters

now

Plus I came way too far to really care for slackers

Now I just tell my driver take me anywhere but backwards

Cause when you fall you know gettin' up takes awhile

'Least you get to look all your fears in the face and

Yeah I'm smilin' in the face of fear

If anything, they was afraid that I would make it here

They said I'd never fly to the moon

I guess I'm doin' better than everybody assumed

[Hook: Sean Hayz]

I know, I know

If I reach for the sky, and I aim for the stars

Maybe I'll find something along the way

And no matter how you count me out

I will never let you break me down

Nooooo, never say never

[Verse 2: Los]

Yeah I live the opposite of what suckers invasion

So I do this for my hood and my brothers in prison

Even though I'm underrated when they overrate you

They oversaturate you, I'm just glad I motivate you
So when I tell you you can make it that sh*t is the truth
And n*gga I ain't just talkin' I'm visual proof
They ask me if I'm stoppin', I live in pursuit
Cause I'm the rare combination of wisdom and youth
I recite it from the heart and never off the pad
Cause I fell in love with music when I lost my dad
Before I ever knew it'd be me in this rappin'
That was the very first day I felt evil attackin'
It used to wake me out my sleep in the midst of my dreams
So haters tryna stop my goals ain't as sick as it seems
I appreciate the rain, just like I love the joy
My father died so I could have this.. I love you boy

[Hook: Sean Hayz]

I know, I know
If I reach for the sky, and I aim for the stars
Maybe I'll find something along the way
And no matter how you count me out
I will never let you break me down
Nooooooooo, never say never

[Outro: Sean Hayz]

Never say never, noo
Never say never, noo
Never say never, noo, noo
Noo, noo, noo
Never say never, noo
Never say never, noo
Never say never, noo, noo
Noo, noo, noo, nooo
