I'm just here to announce that the cool nigga is back, yeah the cool nigga is back. The cool nigga is back, but really i feel a need to prove niggas is wack. Except for maybe this time, yeah maybe this rhyme will be a lil different from the rest of em payattention this one of the best of em. The rest of em get to much rest thats restless unless i get rest from this necklace and this reckless life that we live to keep a nigga on some stress shit. Mothafuckin right i think that im the best bitch. I had a talk with the sun like son, i son niggas like sunlight coming from the sun, he just said son light one. Um, could i yeah, light up the world like a good idea in the hood out here. Its a lot of darkness lot of raining, lot of sparkin, lot of aiming. Pop pop pop im talking whole blocks, its going down like hoes tops and known bops. The chrome bops on niggas cuz niggas wont box, but will box a nigga i miss my own pops. Entry to bad soil but keep it mad loyal i feel bad for you. I'm a vintage gorilla dipped in ca vinchi. The moment of nigga who really could wheely ten speeds or ten keys flippin and catching fans attention, cuz niggas whippin six speeds, let this bitch breathe, never, too clever live different do better. I - D, i de-clare war on niggas i see a major lack of id there. Fuck it place the iv here. one dip of this real shit a trickle
