i just wrote out these lyrics, can someone correct

It feels like every time that it keep pulling me in My hearts beating so differently
It wont be the same again
And now, im stuck in this situation
No more waiting for ya
Boo now ive been patient cant keep waiting for ya
You keep on saying all the right things like how i mean alot
And you tell me your in love with me but i must'a forgot Cause i can tell by the way you talk, tell it by the way you kiss
Im hitting on walls, so tell me how it came to this.

Im so emotional, emotional, you say your in love with me
But i don't see it all. Im so emotional, emotional.
How you gon play like you just found out today.
Im so emotional, emotional, emotional, emotional x2

Eh eh eh ehhhh x3

Every time i close my eyes i find me looking at you
And i hate the way it seems, it just comes straight out of the blue
Cause now i realized some things that you need to explain
Like how you sleep you be calling out someone else name
You be like (something) i thought we was better Couldn't handle the sun like so you up and changed the whether.
Now im stuck in this situation sick of waiting for ya.
Make up your mind you just ran outta time

Im so emotional, emotional, you say your in love with
me
But i don't see it all. Im so emotional, emotional.
How you gon play like you just found out today.
Im so emotional, emotional, emotional, emotional x2

Can you hear me. Calling for you
I cant do this no more, you said you were different
And i trusted youuuuu
I can barely eat i just switched off

Im so emotional, emotional, you say your in love with
me
But i don't see it all. Im so emotional, emotional.
How you gon play like you just found out today.
Im so emotional, emotional, emotional, emotional x2

Can you hear me.
