Running around makes it harder on you
I don't care honey what you wanna do
I got my plans gonna get out of town
There ain't nobody gonna get me down

I may remember all the things you said
I may forget that you even exist
I see my life as an opportunity
Be who I am and be all I can be

What you do
Only effects you

Na Na Na Na

Got my future
It's not up to you
Well there must be someone out there for me
'cause there's a million lonely souls in the city
Yeah, just like me

I got a friend back in Indiana
She says she'd love to put me up for a while
Or I could just hit the road and start driving
It feels good to have nothing to lose
