Jones-Richardson

I've got a pocket full of pennies but a heart full of gold Though my troubles are many I have treasures untold
And the shack that I live in is a palace to me
The treasure of love, the treasure of love you gave to me

In this world there are riches that money can't buy
Like the treasure of true love a love that won't die
So why should I worry what tomorrow will bring The treasure of love, the treasure of love makes me a king

Instrumental (Piano + Pedal Steel Guitar)

Though my clothes are all tattered and I've seen better days

Oh, it really don't matter for I'm rich in other ways
If my pockets are empty but still wealthy I'll be The treasure of love, the treasure of love you gave to
me
me
