A lonely boy
Waiting for a lonely girl.
A lonely girl
Looking for the perfect world.
And you know he'll treat her nice
And you know they'll never fight
And you know they'll be all right
Spending time.
A lonely boy
Searching for a place to hide.
A lonely girl
The only thing that's on his mind.
Now you know he'll treat her right
Never leaves her outta sight
And you know they'll be all right
Thru the night.
Where do all the lonely people go?
Where do all the lonely people go?
Go go!
A lonely boy
Dreaming 'bout a lonely girl.
A lonely girl
Wants her to get into his world.
And you know he'll treat her nice
And you know she'll never cry
And you know they'll be all right
With their lives.
Where do all the lonely people go?
Where do all the lonely people go?
Oh, Lonely boys...
